

Charlie's Notes

I have compiled the links below for the docents to begin their Kelly research.

1. Here are two links to overall sites on Ellsworth Kelly. The first two are about the Ellsworth Kelly Foundation that gives general background on the artist; the second is on EK100, the international centennial exhibition celebration of Ellsworth Kelly's birth, in which SBMA is taking part as the only West Coast museum.

2. Here are features and reviews on the February 2016 exhibition of Kelly's photographs at Matthew Marks Gallery, New York. This was the first time that these photographs had been seen on their own as an exhibition. Many of these works, though not all, are in the SBMA show.
