

Chinese Ancient Bronze Mirrors

	Mirror with Concentric Circles and Linked Arcs Chinese, Western Han dynasty (206 BCE – 8 CE) Bronze Gift of Wright S. Ludington in memory of Charles Henry Ludington 1983.27.48
	Mirror with “TLV” Design and Animals of the Four Directions Chinese, Han dynasty (206 BCE-220 CE) Bronze Museum purchase with funds provided by Friends of Asian Art, Walter G. Silva, and an Anonymous Donor 1985.10
	Mirror Chinese, Han Dynasty (206 BCE - 220 CE) Bronze with four character inscription Gift of Luella V. Burtness in memory of Dr. Hildah I. Burtness 1998.68.2
	Mirror with Four Directional Spirits and Twelve Zodiac Animals Chinese, Sui dynasty (581 - 618) Bronze Gift of Wright S. Ludington in memory of Charles Henry Ludington 1983.27.19
	Mirror with Animals and Birds in Foliated Shape Chinese, Tang dynasty (618 - 906) Bronze, gold, and silver Gift of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Henning 1972.36.13
	Mirror with Animal, Bird, and Grape Design Chinese, Tang dynasty, late 7th century Bronze Gift of Ralph E. and Mary V. Hays 1989.46
	Mirror with Ci Fei, the Dragon Slayer, on Sailing Ship Chinese, Song dynasty (960 - 1279) or Jin dynasty (1115 - 1234) Bronze Gift of Luella V. Burtness in memory of Dr. Hildah I. Burtness 1998.68.4 煌丕昌天 “Great and resplendent is the Heaven.”